Thank you for contributing 25% of your insurance premium to QBE Premiums4Good to help create positive change in communities in Australia and around the world.

GPC Asia Pacific Pty Ltd

September 2018

QBE Premiums4Good directs a portion of investment premium towards a diverse range of investments with an additional social objective such as social impact bonds, green bonds and other social investments. This means that all QBE customers contribute simply by having their insurance with us.

By electing to contribute an additional 25% of your insurance premium towards Premiums4Good, you have joined with us to make a real, sustainable difference to disadvantaged communities and millions of people across the globe.
